WHY EUROPEAN UNIVERSITIES?

Demand for highly skilled people is increasing; by 2025, half of all jobs will require high-level qualifications. The COVID-19 pandemic accelerated the digital transformation of higher education institutions. Yet, much more needs to be done for deep technological and structural changes to the benefit of learning and teaching, allowing for more inclusion and flexible learning approaches.

development for cities and regions and promote civic engagement.

European Year of Youth 2022: young people need to be prepared for the jobs of tomorrow in a fast-changing society, and future generations should be empowered to find solutions to big societal challenges that Europe and the world are facing.

The fast-changing labour market and societal transitions require higher education institutions to provide students, staff and researchers with the skills they need to navigate the twin green and digital transition and build a resilient society. Beyond their core tasks of teaching, research and innovation, universities are key actors in Europe, able to address big societal challenges, become true engines of

This requires a much deeper level of cooperation between universities. With its European Universities initiative, the European Commission aims at fostering excellence, innovation and inclusion in higher education across Europe, accelerating the transformation of higher education institutions into the universities of the future with structural, systemic and sustainable impact.

WHAT ARE EUROPEAN UNIVERSITIES?

European Universities are ambitious transnational alliances of higher education institutions developing long-term structural and strategic cooperation.

Key criteria

Minimum of 3 higher education institutions, from 3 EU Member States or third countries associated to the Erasmus+ programme.

Key cooperation principles

Alliances need a joint long-term strategy for education with, where possible, links to research and innovation to drive systemic, structural and sustainable impact at all levels of their institutions

Alliances will create a European inter-university 'campus', where:

- students, staff and researchers enjoy seamless mobility (physical, virtual or blended) to study, train, teach, do research, work or share services at cooperating partner institutions

- transdisciplinary and transnational teams of students, academics and external stakeholders tackle big issues facing Europe (such as climate protection, digitalisation, health, democracy, migration, security)
- students can design their own flexible curricula, leading to a European Degree
- practical and/or work-based experience is provided to foster an entrepreneurial mind-set and develop civic engagement
- the student body reflects the social, economic and cultural diversity of the population

Cooperating partners should come from different parts of Europe

THE WAY FORWARD

In November 2017, the 28 EU leaders debated the future of education at the Gothenburg Social Summit in Sweden. In the same month, the European Commission set out a vision for a European Education Area to be built by 2025 “in which learning, studying and doing research would not be hampered by borders”. The European Universities Initiative is a flagship initiative of the European Education Area. It will enable a new generation of Europeans to cooperate across languages, borders and disciplines, developing a strong European identity. It is also a flagship initiative of the European strategy for universities that sets the ambition to support 60 European Universities involving more than 500 higher education institutions by mid-2024.

November 2021 Launch of 3rd Erasmus+ call announced

July 2022 Results of 3rd call announced – full roll-out phase
